

Dear Friends and Family of Temple Judea,

We send you love and blessing as we, one with all of our People, enter the New Year, 5767.

Our life down here in Charleston is everything and more than we hoped it would be: a great Jewish Community and Reform Temple, superb culture and arts and, most important, warm and welcoming human beings with whom to share our lives. The health of each of us continues to gradually, yet inexorably, improve day by day.

We both join you in the prayer that the year ahead will be for us, for those we love, and for all of God's children one of healing, of growth and of peace.

Shana Tova,
Rabbi and Linda
