

Temple Judea of Manhasset – 2008

Learn to Make and Eat Sushi Day – January 27, 2008

On Sunday, January 27 Temple Judea of Manhasset held its Second Annual Sushi Making Luncheon. This event returned after last year's enthusiastic success.

Sushi making and eating drew interest from all age groups of the Temple Judea family. Our school children and members learned the art of creating sushi rolls using a "Makisu" or bamboo roller, sushi rice, and nori seaweed. With a variety of fillings such as tuna, salmon, avocado, and cucumber, participants created culinary delights to their individual tastes.

The instruction was, once again, in the capable hands of expert sushi chefs Taka and Koichi from "Taka" restaurant of Westbury. The event was sponsored by the Brotherhood of Temple Judea. Brotherhood President Joel Laxer was pleased with how everyone there, especially the kids, "immersed themselves in rice" and nori in an effort to create the perfect rolls.

Participation was complementary to Brotherhood members and their families. Others were welcomed and everyone had great time at this unique Temple Judea event.

Temple Judea of Manhasset was established in 1955 and has over 500 member families. Temple Judea, affiliated with the Union for Reform Judaism, is located at 333 Searingtown Road, Manhasset. Please call (516) 621-8049 for further information and visit its website at www.temple-judea.com
