MANHASSET, NY -- Temple Judea's Family Connections committee of will be holding a special celebration on Sunday, September 14 from 11:30 am to 1:00 pm to start the Jewish New Year off right.

Open to the community, the event is targeted to elementary school students and their families and will be held at the Temple. The fun will continue as the families are invited to play ping pong, nock hockey and board games.

"We are excited to present a program for children and their families that combines a celebration of the season and a mitzvah project in which all ages can participate," said Larissa Guarrera, president of Temple Judea of Manhasset. "The program promises to be both fun and spiritually uplifting."

In addition to the card decorating tzedakah project, all attendees are asked to bring a non-perishable food item for donation to the INN (Interfaith Nutrition Network).
