

TEMPLE JUDEA OF MANHASSET NEWS RELEASE

333 Searingtown Road, Manhasset, NY 11030

Temple Judea To Host Art Auction

Temple Judea will be hosting an art auction presented by Marlin Art on February 28, 2009. A preview of all the items to be sold will be held at 7:00pm and the auction will begin at 8:00pm.

“Everyone looks to put art in their homes that reflects their aesthetic self. This is a great opportunity to find that kind of art,” said Wendy Levy coordinator of the art auction. “We have this event every few years and it is always a fun, different way to spend a Saturday night.”

Marlin Art had been conducting art auctions since 1969. They offer art ranging from lithographs and antique posters to sculptures and signed work. Conducting over 500 auctions a year, Marlin Art has exclusive relationships with many contemporary artists. In addition to traditional art media, Marlin Art offers animation cels, sports memorabilia and other collectibles and home accents.

Temple Judea will be offering hor d’oeuvres, wine, cheese and dessert during the event to give an entertaining flair for the festive occasion. Simply Wine of Albertson will be providing a broad selection of wine that appeals to a variety of tastes.

Temple Judea of Manhasset was established in 1955 and has over 500 member families. One of the few temples that is completely handicapped accessible, Temple Judea is affiliated with the Union for Reform Judaism. It is located at 333 Searingtown Road, Manhasset.
